Multifamily Housing RHIIP Tips Listserv

(General Presentation)

On January 13, 2006, The Office of Multifamily Housing Programs (Headquarters) launched the Listserv "Multifamily Housing RHIIP Tips" (RHIIP Listserv), a free mailing list service dedicated to the latest developments in issues related to HUD's multifamily housing.

The RHIIP Listserv was created to quickly deliver new information to interested stakeholders of the various HUD Multifamily Housing programs.

RHIIP LISTSERV

RHIIP Listserv Sample Subjects

➢ RHIIP Tip:   Rental housing occupancy related tip to assist property managers in reducing subsidy calculation errors.

➢ RHIIP News:   RHIIP related news items.

➢ RHIIP PROfile:   Profile of an individual who is making an impact in the RHIIP Initiative.

➢ Other Items of Interest: Information not related to the RHIIP Initiative that will be of interest to our industry partners.

If you are a:

➢HUD employee working in the area of Multifamily Housing

➢Contract Administrator

➢Property Owner, Management Agent, or Site Manager
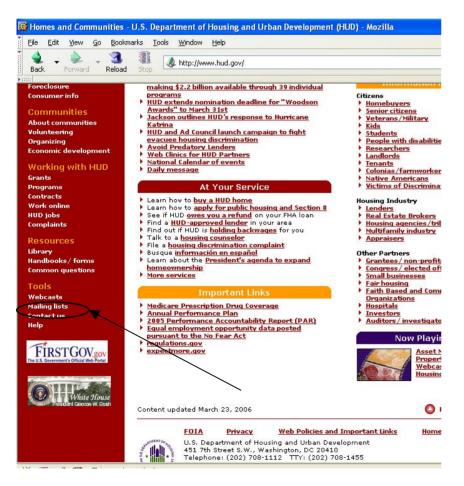

➢Resident of a HUD Multifamily Housing rental property

Benefits of subscribing:

By subscribing, you will receive the latest information to help you perform your job. For example, The Office of Multifamily Housing Programs announced via the RHIIP Listserv the release of the 2006 income limits one day after they were released. As new items are released, such as the upcoming notice with additional guidance on implementing the new student rule and Change 2 to Handbook 4350.3 REV-1, Occupancy Requirements of Subsidized Multifamily Housing Programs, you will receive notice in your email account.

The RHIIP Tips are beneficial to refresh your knowledge of occupancy related issues or to clarify difficult or not widely known areas of Handbook 4350.3 REV-1.
